

WHAT TO EXPECT WHILE YOU ARE IN IDLEWILD

A guide by the Idlewild Int. Film Festival

What you may see	What you will hear	What you should bring	What will you experience	What you should know	What you can't bring on Festival/Campground
Beautiful lakes, new construction, blight (abandoned homes) some dirt roads, cowboys, clean sandy beaches, horses going up and down the road, bikers, four wheelers golf carts, jet ski, speed boats, motorcycles, fishermen, paddle boats, kayaks, gliders, geese (at the beach), snakes, squirrels, frogs, birds bears, deer, rabbits, etc.	The wind speaking to you! Lakes, laughter, birds chirping, silence, light traffic, Jet skis, speed boats, motorcycles, music.	Sun screen, mosquito repellent, comfortable shoes, tent if you have reserved camping space , lawn chairs, blanket, books, small cooler, first aid kit or supplies, hand sanitizer, animal and insect repellent, wipes, snacks, reusable water bottles, water, headlamps or flashlights/lanterns, hats, power bank to charge phones, and bikes. Umbrella and or raincoat. We can't control the weather.	Nature, history, fun, togetherness, culture, memories, long lasting friendships.	WIFI is iffy up north it may or may not work. Some of the smaller cell providers do not work. Closest major grocery store is in Baldwin which is the closest large town and only about 7 minutes away. Cottages and motels fill up fast! Book your accommodations early for optimal selection. We have limited VIP available @ www.idlewildintfilmfest.com All camping guests must reserve space on festival grounds prior to arrival.	Firearms, animals. generators (except vendors), BBQ pits or fire pits (except overnight campers with reserved space) illegal drugs.

Idlewild is recognized as a rural part of Michigan by the U.S census and is 50% forest area. Please remember that it gets very dark after sunset.